

- | | | | |
|-----------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 1
Mon | In the wake of the heartbreaking Tai Po fire last Wednesday that took many lives, injured many and displaced families, we pray for healing and peace. Amid grief, we honour the bravery of firefighters, commend the compassion of neighbours and the swift response, in offering shelter. The Church and community have been called to offer comfort, practical help and love. May this sorrow inspire mercy, hope and renewed care, through the blessings of faith and mercy and that we can bring light, to sudden darkness and help re-build lives. Amen! | 2
Tue | Christian Action's (CA) 'Season of Love' Charity Sale 2025-26 is already underway!
We're blessed to partner with five talented local designers, offering their beautiful creations on consignment—perfect, meaningful festive gifts that celebrate God-given creativity. Please pray with us that the Lord will provide a bountiful harvest despite economic challenges. The proceeds will support our ministry to the underprivileged, sharing Christ's love and hope. Amen! |
| 3
Wed | Today we gather for our board meeting and Annual General Meeting with grateful hearts. We humbly seek His continued guidance, wisdom, and providence through our dedicated board members and colleagues who share the same mission and vision of caring for the vulnerable and needy both in HK and Qinghai. Amen! | 4
Thu | Our Mong Kok Service Centre (MKC) recently co-hosted a STEM-themed workshop—Science, Technology, Engineering, and Mathematics—with a corporate partner, tailored for our children clients. Pray that this initiative will ignite wonder in their hearts and they discover the unique gifts He has endowed them, inspiring them with a deeper sense of purpose in their learning path. "Start children off on the way they should go, and even when they are old they will not turn from it. Proverbs 22:6" |
| 5
Fri | 2 of the CA centres, namely in Choi Wan Estate and On Tai Estate, have been assigned as polling stations for the 2025 Legislative Council Election Day this Sunday. Pray for safe and smooth preparation work in the following days. May God's guidance and protection cover every detail and the logistics of the whole process. Amen! | 6
Sat | This month, our Social Enterprise Department (SED) is conducting several green collection initiatives in various private housing estates in Kowloon. Well-chosen good-quality items will be sold in our outlets. Pray that public awareness will be significantly aroused to support our ministry; and they understand that this is also a means to fulfill charity work. |
| 7
Sun | Let's pray that the HKSAR Legislative Council election today will be a radiant testimony to God's heart for justice, peace, and shared human dignity. May His sovereign will be fulfilled in our city, and may those elected be guided by wisdom and compassion who will work together in unity to craft policies that truly serve the needs of the people. Amen! | 8
Mon | The On Tai Service Centre (OTSC) has launched a new initiative called the "3Cs Programme" since September, emphasizing 3 key areas: Chinese tutorial classes, Chance for workplace tours and Career workshops for Ethnic Minority (EM) youth. The initiative aims to improve their Chinese language proficiency and support them in exploring and shaping their future career paths. Pray that we continue to empower them toward greater social mobility and a brighter future. Amen! |
| 9
Tue | Several children under the care of our Children and Youth Programmes will be sitting for their mid-term internal school examinations. Pray that each of them will be diligent in their studies, do their best, and experience the fruit of their hard work. May God grant them focus, confidence, and peace throughout the process. | 10
Wed | Today marks International Human Rights Day , a global observance that upholds the principles of equality, dignity, and freedom for all people. Please pray in unison especially for the refugees and domestic helpers under our care; and ask for renewed commitment to fostering harmony and inclusion, embracing diversity across race, religion, and nationality. May CA continue to be instruments of compassion and justice. Amen! |
| 11
Thu | This week, our Sheung Shui Service Centre (SSC) will hold a one-day activity themed "Positive Parenting with Love" supported by the North District Office with a view to introducing the educational system in HK to new arrival families; imparting dining etiquette to them and offering them a tour of the HKU campus as well. May God bless them with joy, peace, and a deeper sense of belonging so that they will integrate into the new environment with ease. | 12
Fri | Hallelujah!
Today is CA's Annual Christmas Party. Pray that it will be held smoothly, and all staff & board members will have a lot of fun and make sweet memories; and a sense of belonging will be fostered through celebrating the birth of Jesus Christ, our Lord and our Saviour whom we look up to and rely on. |
| 13
Sat | Today, we will host a cheerful carnival at the basketball court near Choi Wan Estate 1, welcoming 500 to 800 people. Featuring stage performances, interactive game stalls, a health check station, and a booth promoting ERB courses, this event aims to bless the community with connection, care, and opportunity, while witnessing CA as a faithful example of following Jesus Christ. | 14
Sun | Our Tsuen Wan Training Centre will soon be relocated to a new unit within the same building. Renovation work on the new premises is currently in progress to prepare for the transition. Pray that the renovation will be safe, smooth and completed on schedule. May the relocation be seamless and lead to our improved service quality. |

15 Mon	Pray for God's wisdom and guidance as we prepare the Diversity Hub interim report for our donor this month. May the Holy Spirit lead every word and may Christ's love be evident. The Diversity Hub, led by ethnic minorities (EM) youth empowered by CA, fosters understanding through a mini-museum experience. Pray that more people recognize our commitment to serving EM communities and promoting social cohesion through this ministry.	16 Tue	This December, our Long Ping Service Centre (LPSC) will co-organize with other churches in Tin Shui Wai some joyful Christmas celebrations for Child Development Fund (CDF) student mentees and mentors, including Christmas Caroling, a Community Carnival and another festive decoration workshop. Pray that, through these gatherings, we share Christ's love with our neighbors, and that fun, fellowship, and Gospel witness will deepen community bonds.
17 Wed	A seminar named "Navigating the delicate line between life and death in the silver-age journey" will be organized at our Jordan Training Centre to equip corporations in the property management and security sector. May God use this workshop to strengthen their compassion, wisdom, and readiness in caring for elderly residents, especially in moments of crisis, with grace, dignity, and peace.	18 Thu	This December, our Ethnic Minorities (EM) Youth Ambassador Team (EMAm) will continue to host a variety of engaging activities for EM youth—including games, handicraft workshops, and sports sessions such as cricket. Pray that we seek to nurture their personal growth, build their confidence, and create a supportive environment where every young person feels valued, encouraged, and embraced by the love of Christ in our community.
19 Fri	This December, the Mong Kok Service Centre (MKC) is joyfully celebrating Christmas with birthday and Christmas parties, plus an outing to Ocean Park. Pray that through these warm gatherings, every participant will deeply experience God's love. As we rejoice in the promise, "The virgin will conceive and give birth to a son, and they will call him Immanuel" (God with us), may His presence fill us with peace and His light shines brightly upon the world. Amen.	20 Sat	Today, our SSC will join hands with a property management corporation to host a Christmas celebration for residents in the North District. As we share the joy of Christ's birth through festive activities and warm fellowship, may His love be felt by every heart present. Pray that it also brings peace, unity, and the true light of Christmas to the community.
21 Sun	Happy Winter Solstice! As this season reminds us of family gatherings and togetherness, let us lift up in prayer those who are often overlooked—the disenfranchised and disadvantaged, including migrant domestic workers far from home and refugees stranded in Hong Kong. May they feel seen, supported, and not alone. And may the love of God embrace them deeply, whether they are far from home by choice or by circumstance. Amen!	22 Mon	Our EM Ambassador team (EMAm) is planning to organize a picnic today for its EM youth clients as a joyful opportunity to foster teamwork and strengthen relationships in a relaxed environment. The participants will also bring and share their cultural dishes, celebrating the wonderful diversity within our community as a reflection of God's creativity and grace. Pray that all of them will enjoy and cherish this precious moment.
23 Tue	Our OTSC will host monthly small-group gatherings for women to support their growth in employment and personal development next week. Pray that, through guidance, workshop, and fellowship, they will discover their own God-given identity, improve their communication skills and feel empowered in a Christ-centered community; leading them to live an independent and brilliant life in the future through our ministry.	24 Wed	On this Christmas Eve, as we celebrate the birth of our Savior, we are reminded to keep our China team in prayer. Despite the harsh winter, they continue their faithful service with courage and dedication. Pray for steadfast faith, divine wisdom, and the Lord's faithful provision in every need. May God's Word be their constant guide— "a lamp to our feet and a light to our path" Psalm 119:105
25 Thu	Blessed Christmas! Love, joy and peace to the world! May the city come to know Jesus as our Saviour and acknowledge His protection and provision as our foothold to prosperity and harmony. "Glory to God in highest heaven, and peace on earth to those with whom God is pleased." Luke 2:14 Amen!	26 Fri	Today is Boxing Day, a time of giving and reflection. We humbly ask for your prayers as our Centre for Refugees awaits the outcome of several recently submitted funding proposals. Please pray for our continuous and steadfast faith in His divine providence and direction as we strive to walk with the most marginalized sector in the community. Amen!
27 Sat	Please join us in prayer as we seek a timely and effective solution for the migration of all our computer classrooms from MS Office 2016 to Microsoft 365, preferably within this month. This urgent transition comes in response to a sudden directive from the Employee Retraining Board (ERB), with a deadline set for 31 st March 2026. May He grant us wisdom, strength, and the right resources to navigate this process smoothly. Amen!	28 Sun	Our EMAm Team continues its regular outreach activities in different parts of Hong Kong twice weekly. Pray that the clients feel cherished and cared for; and they will adapt to the community more easily. Amen!
29 Mon	In light of the government's initiative to strengthen after-school care services for underprivileged families, our MKC will extend support to additional primary schools in the vicinity, sponsored by the Community Care Fund, starting next year. Pray that we will continue to serve with wisdom, compassion, and excellence, so we can meet the needs of these children and their families, and reflect God's love through our dedicated ministry.	30 Tue	Our SED has co-organized several ESG events highlighting Environmental, Social or Governance issues with the Housing Authority and a private corporation this month. Pray that we continue to partner with different stakeholders in the community for green advocacy and environmental education to the public. Amen!
31 Wed	2025 is coming to an end! CA is profoundly thankful for God's mercy, wisdom, and protection that has sustained us through every challenge during the economic downturn. As we look ahead, please pray in unison for another year filled with renewed hope and abundant grace. May His blessings overflow upon our clients, the families of our staff, our board members, and all our dear friends of CA. Amen! May the LORD bless you and take care of you. Numbers 6:24

As 2025 draws to a close, we lift our hearts in gratitude for God's unfailing mercy, strength, and protection through every challenge and trial.
May the coming year, 2026, be filled with health, joy, and abundant fruitfulness under His gracious hand.
We entrust all things to Him and declare—Amen! God Bless!